And gave a joyful shout;

All matter for publication must be hand in before 9 o'clock a. m.

Mrs. Sallie McD. Humphreys is quite sick at her home in Washington.

"The Gwine Down to Jamestown," "At Rest" and "Little Alice," the three pretty musical compositions by Mrs. Frances Goggin Maltby of Washington, are for sale at Taylor's and at the Gerbrich store.

The monster hogs butchered by Emil Wels the other day had monster tanks as well. They measured over six inches in length and curled like those seen in pictures of a wild animal.
See them in his shop window.

Think of it. "The Gwine Down to Jamestown," the popular Southern melody composed by Mrs.
Frances Goggin Maltby, is meeting with much success as a musical hit at the Jamestown Exposition, where it strikes its natural locale.
The Public Ledger is pleased to note the success of Mason's gifted song-writer and hopes other popular compositions may follow from the author's versatile pen. Mrs. Maltby has written other songs—two particularly, "At Rest" and "Little Alice," which have met with approbation from the critical public.

MERZ BROS.

WILLSON denies that he is the attorney for the Tobacco Trust. But records show that he was.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Br'er DULEY, that's an illogical accusation. Let's tote fair in this campaign, lest some of us Editors may be branded as liars and premeditated falsifiers.

You say that "WILLSON denies that he is the attorney for the Tobacco Trust." Now, Mr. Willson is not the attorney for the Tobacco Trust.

You say, "but records show that he was." That is a fact. Mr. WILLSON prosecuted two cases for the American Tobacco Company and got paid for his work, just like thousands of farmers in Mason and Fleming counties have sold their tobacco to the same company and used the money to support their families and pay off the mortgages on their farms.

Mr. WILLSON is a lawyer, and a good one, too. Wouldn't he be a fool to decline a case from any responsible individual or corporation because he or it was a "Trust?" Kentucky tobacco growers are just now trying to force the Tobacco Trust to come to terms. Are they not after the money of the big Trust, just as Mr. WILLSON was, and all of us are right now?

Why strain at a gnat and swallow a camel? Why censure Mr. WILLSON for selling his time and legal ability to a corporation, as any other lawyer would have been proud to have done, and then, at the same time, and in the same campaign, pat BECKHAM and HAGER on the back for accepting a $15,000 campaign fund from this hated Tobacco Trust?

Mr. WILLSON's "crime" was nothing like as heinous as BECKHAM and HAGER's, because the latter used the $15,000 from the American Tobacco Company as a corruption fund to buy registration certificates from Negroes and ignorant white Republicans. Mr. WILLSON used the fees he honestly earned from the same company to support his family.

Now, honest tobacco growers, you must be fair and consistent in this matter and not judge with prejudice in this trumped-up charge against Mr. WILLSON, else God and the right will rise up and smite you with the blight of fools who make failures by using illegal means to gain an honest purpose.

Your conscience will convict you, confusion will follow you, unless you give every man the square deal that you are after yourself.

DOES POLITENESS PAY?

The little man was saving up for his summer holidays, so he had no newspaper to hide behind when the lady of commanding presence entered the car, which was already full.

She was a woman of experience, and did not waste her energy in looking at all the male passengers in the hope that one of them would offer his seat. She simply concentrated her gaze upon the little man and waited.

"Madam," he said, "take this seat." Without a word of thanks she sat down, when he indulged in that healthful exercise known as strap-banging.

"What is the use of standing there?" she cried. "Come and sit on my lap." "Madam," faltered the little man, blushing in his embarrassment, "I—I—"

"You little wretch!" screamed the lady, "I didn't mean you. I was calling to my daughter at the end of the car."

SALVATION ARMY

Gets Down to Work in Maysville—Good Meeting Last Evening on the Esplanade.

The upper Esplanade was ablaze last evening with light, music, preaching and prayer and reminded one of the metropolitan Salvation Army in full ection. City Missionary Reed, wife and family were in charge assisted by Mr. Bruce Littleton, an ex-Salvationist, who has taken up the good work in this city.

The meeting last night was very satisfactory and the music awoke the echoes of the evening, while the sermons of Revs. Reed and Littleton were convincing and eloquent and enjoyed by quite a crowd.

Let the good work proceed and all should join in and push this good cause.

THE FRANKFORT GANG

Beckham, Hager, Hargis, Haley and Co. Excoriated By Gen. Basil Duke

In a recent speech at Louisville, Gen. Basil W. Duke, the gallant ex-Confederate soldier and life-long Democrat, among other things said—

"I am sometimes asked how I, as a former Confederate soldier, can reconcile myself to vote against these latter day Democrats. I answer, 'How is it possible, if I was sincere in my convictions and conduct then, can I now endorse the unseemable methods which these modern Democratic candidates preach and practice?' I sometimes wonder what it was the Confederate soldier did, in the time of his dire trial, when he was freezing and starving, enduring every form and extremity of privation and danger, fighting against odds, holding out even against hope—in the effort to perform his duties—what was it that he did that can make any one venture to ask why he stands for law and decency and justice now? In order that such a suggestion may be understood in its true character, I will ask you to reflect and consider what the four men, who may be selected as those most perfectly representative of the best and highest Confederate sentiment would do if situated as we are now. Let us suppose that Jefferson Davis, Robert Lee, Albert Sidney Johnston and Stonewall Jackson—the four men we hold in highest estimation, whom we revere as our typical heroes and are canonized in our memories—let us suppose them to be still living and citizens of Louisville. Now imagine, if such a thing be within the region of imagination, that some emissary of the Machine should approach Mr. Davis—who whether he was right or wrong in his political creed, was above almost all men in his high ideal of civic duty—and should ask him to aid in the conspiracy to deprive his people of free and fair franchise—should ask him to justify the unprecedented declaration of a candidate for executive office that if elected, he would not enforce the laws? He would probably make no answer, for such a suggestion might well render him speechless, but the blaze of burning scorn and indignation which would leap from the eye that never quailed before any danger might melt even the brass of the Machine."

It was moved and carried that seven members of the Board would constitute a quorum. It was moved by Bro. Skillman, seconded by Bro. Ivey, that the Board have its regular Quarterly Meetings on Friday before the fourth Sunday in January, April and July, at Maysville.

The Board then went into an election of an Executive Committee, the following being elected: W. R. Ivey, Chairman, C. N. Bollinger, Walter Matthews, Alex. Marshall and H. T. Swart.

It was moved and carried that a committee be appointed to suggest a schedule to the Churches for taking their collections for the various objects. The following committee was appointed: S. W. Partee, Chairman, W. R. Ivey and C. G. Skillman.

It was moved and carried that the Executive Board be instructed to employ a Missionary for half of his time to do work at large in this Association.

Bro. Thomas Galtier was elected Treasurer of this Board. At the noon hour the Board took recess for one hour. They were conducted to the dining-room in the Church, where the good women of the Baptist Church had prepared an elegant dinner. About a dozen of the ladies were present to extend to these distinguished gentlemen an old-fashioned Kentucky welcome.

noble band, it was decided by some of the body that they would like to have the meetings monthly instead of quarterly.

A very hearty vote of thanks was tendered these good women for their splendid service. After a very delightful and profitable session, the Board adjourned to meet in Maysville again on the Friday before the fourth Sunday in January, 1908.

Most physics cause chronic constipation—or worse

Chronic constipation, piles, appendicitis and other such intestinal afflictions are more often caused by improper physics than anything else. The average physic, whether it is in the form of a water, candy, pellet, or pill, is intended to quickly and unnaturally move the bowels. Such an unnatural treatment so shocks and weakens the intestinal muscles that the continued treatment of stronger and stronger physics becomes necessary. This produces chronic constipation.

Piles and appendicitis are caused by the violent manner in which these explosive drugs attack the intestines.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

in the ordinary sense is not a cathartic. It is a laxative but acts differently from all other preparations. It contains great tonic properties, which strengthen instead of weaken the intestinal muscles. It is pleasant to take, does not gripe or cause pain, and never creates a necessity for the continual use of any physic. All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Money back if it doesn't satisfy. Pepsin Syrup Co. Monticello, Ill.

For the Season 1907.

These patterns are specially designed to meet the requirements of the present season. Those who appreciate swaggy styles, newly shaped collars and lapels, shoulders of natural widths and smoothness, sleeves that are truly beautiful, should inspect my work—outlines, character and an individuality that surpasses all styles ever offered by any merchant tailor in this city. Remember, I design patterns for you. Just tell me what you want, how you want it and when you want it. Give me a trial and I will convince you that I can deliver the goods.

"Be this as it may, these statistics are incontrovertible proof of the fallacy of prohibitive and greatly restrictive liquor legislation, be it prohibition, local option, high license or the dispensary system. The best law from the standpoint of temperance seems to be a license law, with a moderate fee for the license and a sane control of the saloon on the part of the authorities."

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health.

The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Pears' Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chaffing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

There are a lot of no account dogs prowling about the city that were better out of the way than in it, but when it comes to killing fine bred hunting dogs, such as Chief Ort's, Ed. Three Cars Jump the Track on the Lexington Division Yesterday

Near Klondike Station, four miles West of Lexington, yesterday the Westbound passenger train on the C. and O. was wrecked. Three cars and the trucks of the tender jumped the track and ran a long distance on the ties, the cars overturning in a cut.

The engine did not leave the track. The ties and rails were torn up for three hundred yards and all traffic was delayed for twelve hours, fast trains from the West going by way of Mayaville, while locals transferred passengers.

Expressman Albert Chapman and Baggage-man Sweetman, both of Ashland, were badly injured.

Mrs. Carrie Nation was one of the passengers and preached a sermon on the scene.

The gage marks 63 and falling.

The snagboat Woodruff is at work in the upper Ohio.

Rev. Bird Hughes of Sardis is taking in the sights at the Jamestown Exposition.

On the farm of Mr. Samuel L. Cooper, near Sardis, recently, a fine brood sow, the property of Alfred Cooper, farrowed nine pigs, one of which was a double-pig, having two full size bodies, eight legs, regularly formed, but only one head, but had four ears and a double tongue. The pig was fully matured but dead when found.

Near Brooksville several days ago a singular accident occurred on the Brooksville and Woilburg Railroad. C. D. Ashury of Robertson county had shipped a carload of cattle to a party at Dayton, O., and after the train left Brooksville the car containing the cattle jumped the track, rolled down an embankment, turned bottom side up and broke in two parts. Not one of the cattle was killed and only a few were bruised. Though luckily escaping this wreck, one of the bunch was struck and killed that night by the train returning from Woilburg.

Mayaville People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Mayaville testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Mayaville who suffer from bad backs and kidney ailments. Last year an sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Mayaville people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's a Mayaville case:

Henry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third street, Mayaville, Ky., says:

"I believe everybody in Mayaville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and having aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker, I thought my trouble was caused by my work for every time I took cold it settled in my back. Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble and never, from that time to this, have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."
